Dedication

To the Spirit of Jollity,
our Prompter
from the wings.

The 1915 players do hereby present this their last play as a united company, hoping from the larger audience of the world some small portion of that generous consideration which has been granted them by the on-lookers at their performances, both past and present.

Song Hits of Act 1

ACT I, SCENE 2.

Tune: Solomon Levi

Oh, we are nineteen fifteen and
 We are the newest class;
 We've come to learn to be like you
 Instead of like the grass.
 We hope that you will like us well!
 We're going to do our best
 To make you like each one of us
 As you like all the rest.

Chorus: Oh, Nineteen fourteen, tra-la-la-la-la-la-la,
 Dear nineteen fourteen, tra-la-la-la-la-la-la-etc.

ACT I. BETWEEN SCENES 5 AND 6.

Tune: Turkey in the Straw

You may say that we are frivolous, we're really not at all,
 Although we did a little flunking in the Fall;
 Won't you and the "News" your hammers lay away, and See the Freshmen as they are to-day?

Chorus: Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, all
 Didn't you ever flunk in the Fall?
 When you first to Wellesley came,
 Didn't you all do just the same?

When we bade farewell to our friends and families dear,
 And came to college for our Freshman year,
 They told us of that famous Boston town
 And all its sights of great renown.

Chorus: Seniors, Juniors, Sophomore, all
 Didn't you see those sights in the Fall?
 When you first to Wellesley came,
 Didn't you all do just the same?

(Added as encore to ACT II)

Since Monday was our only holiday,
 We learned our 'Merican history in this way,
 And how at Christmas our parents all did frown
 When they found we couldn't visit Boston town.

Chorus: Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, all
 Oh, how we have suffered this Fall,
 Sad and pale and worn and thin,
 Six-day schedule is surely a sin.

ACT I, SCENE 6

The Sun is O'er the Mountain

The sun is o'er the mountain, Come Helen Goss,
 We've waited by the fountain, Come Helen Goss.

Chorus: O haste thee here, O haste thee here,
 For all that's fair seems fairest here.

The sun is brighter shining, Old grows the day
 Let's not waste time in pining, Come, welcome the May.

Chorus: O haste thee here, etc.

Song Hits of Act II

ACT II, SCENE 2:

Tune: Alexander's Rag Time Band

Come on and hear!
 Come on and hear!
 Hear the Sophomores serenade!
 Come on and hear!
 Come on and hear!
 All our books away we've laid.
 In the corner sling Math. English Composition, too
 Girls, Its a call! Its a call! Its a call! and its for you!
 This is the greatest fun we've had, (whistle)
 Aren't you glad?
 Come on and hear!
 Come on and hear!
 Join the merry, happy band;
 Come on and hear!
 Come on and hear!
 We're the best band in the land,
 And if you want to hear the best Glee Club in Wellesley College—
 Come on and hear!
 Come on and hear!
 Our Soph'more Serenade.

ACT II, SCENE 7:

Tune: Another Rag

Another class, another Sophomore class,
 Another year to show our progress here,
 Another splendid year, to prove our love so dear
 For our energetic, ath-e-letic, get-you-going class
 Another song, to tell our praises true,
 Oh, Nineteen Fifteen, we'll be true to you,
 Stop, stop! Look, look! Come on and hear!
 That's it (clap, clap) Don't you know what that is?
 That's the Sophomore class.

ACT II, SCENE 2-8:

Crew Song Tune: Gypsy Trail

Speed on. Kishobi, yellow rose,
 Over the bright waves riding,
 Bear Fifteen's hopes and Fifteen's fame,
 Light o'er the waters gliding.
 Like rose-petals blown by the summer breeze,
 Swift as the eagle's flight,
 Borne by the stroke of the gleaming blades,
 Onward toward the light!
 Row, row, row, row,
 Fifteen is true to you!

Song Hits of Act III

Marching Song

We are marching onward
O'er the green to-day;
We're a class from Wellesley,
An odd one, so they say,
Marching on to give a cheer
For a splendid college year,
Senior year.
All the campus echoes far and near.

CHORUS

We're a class of jolly Juniors
Who are gaily marching by;
We are stars in ath(a)letics and our academic's high
Our color stands unrivalled,
Our banner gleams afar;
It lights the path and always will from the Quad to the Vill.
We cheer for Nineteen Fifteen evermore.

ACT III, SCENE 3.

Tune—"In My Harem"

Here's to fifteen, to fifteen,
In hockey, tennis, running,
For there'll never be a minute
When fifteen is not in it.
We will cheer her,
Can't you hear her?
Others fear her, too.
When it comes to ath(a)letics we are proud of you!
It's to fifteen, to fifteen,
That all the glory's coming;
She will beat you all
In golf and basketball,
And we'll cheer her alway, fifteen.

WELLESLEY HAS BIG CELEBRATION

Wellesley College professors and students had a big celebration on the campus over the completion of the $2,430,000 fire fund. Here are the words of one of the songs they sang in serenading President Pendleton:

If a Wellesley fire began at four,
 By noon were almost done,
 If all the girls who lost their clothes
 Were counted one by one;

If a beneop hatched on the Chapel Green,
 In the space of twenty days,
 How many millions for the fund
 Could President Pendleton raise!

Chorus:
 Problems such as these
 College is no snap you see
 Do not let your friends
 Dun them till they pay;
 So we got our fund com
 For this New Year's Day

The serenaders were Margaret Dickey, Graduate Faculty member; about the splendid body in raising the grants were sent to B president of the college to Miss Candace Still of the alumnae committee, bringing the appreciation; for their work for the

EVOLUTION OF A STAR

JOKES AND ADVERTISEMENTS

Coming to the Wellesley Theatre—Attractions that are already arousing interest

1916. "Loyalty and Service."

A stirring drama which made a great hit upon its first appearance. Part of its success may perhaps be attributed to the ability shown by the excellent cast in carrying through the first act in spite of the enforced absence of the leading lady.

1917. "Nobility in All Things."

Following the example of noted stage managers, we refrain from giving the entire story of this play, but would say that it is a drama worthy of succeeding its sister play, now running: "Toward the Light."

1918. "The Question."

A mystery play, the key to which is revealed at the end of the first act.

N. B.—The reviewer was unable to stay more than the first act, but this promised exceedingly well.

Helpful Hints for Stage Aspirants

By A. Starr

Query: I have been singing for a year in our village choir and can carry a tune very well. Do you think there is a chance for me in light opera? ASPIRANTIE.

Answer: Why try light opera? Wouldn't Wagner be more suited to your training? Always aim high, Aspirantie, and you are bound to succeed.

Query: Would a course in Senior dancing at Wellesley assure me a place in Pavlowa's Company, or do you think some further study might be necessary? LITTLE HOPEFUL.

Answer: MY DEAR LITTLE HOPEFUL—Your modesty and naïveté are truly charming and I feel that a great career awaits you. However, I do not feel that you should waste your talents upon work in a company—rather begin as a solo dancer. Your training is indeed sufficient. Let me hear from you again. ONE WHO IS INTERESTED.

Query: Sometimes when I go on the stage, my knees shake, my tongue seems to cleave to the roof of my mouth and I am unable to utter a vowel. Do you think the symptoms serious and can you suggest a remedy? ANXIOUS.

Answer: This is a clear instance of stage fright. It will wear away with constant practice. You might sit down to stop the shaking of the knees. FRIENDLY.

Query: I am about to enter the production, Toward the Light. Can you suggest a wardrobe to start on? PERPLEXED.

Answer: You will need two sweaters—one to wear and one to lend—an umbrella with a padlock and chain, two or three raincoats (they wear out rapidly), a hat, if you expect to go into town—otherwise it is a needless luxury—a suit, and other accessories.

Query: I play the piano very well and often perform in the drawing room on Sunday. I have noticed that every one leaves the room as soon as I play. Is it because they are too deeply affected to remain? I do not wish to make others sad. TROUBLED.

Answer: We refer this to our readers.

Answers to Correspondents

DEAR LEGENDA: I'm in such trouble that I just have to ask your advice. I've come to every single performance of "Toward the Light"—it's such an inspiring play—for the whole year and I've just had to cut "gym" so that I could attend the afternoon performances. And what do you think has happened? They've sent me a horrid little notice saying that my attendance is desired immediately. I can't bear to miss a matinee. Don't you think you could arrange it?

VERA Y. FRESHMAN.

Answer: You force the management to admit a higher power than itself. We shall have to content ourselves with your moral support alone, at the afternoon performances.

DEAR LEGENDA: I have attended every performance of "Toward the Light" and my curiosity has at last driven me to write to you. How is the forensic burned in the third act? This point is still obscure to me, and there are hundreds beside myself who would be glad to see this question answered.

MARGARET JUNIOR.

Answer: We regret to state that we have no authority to make this matter public. Both tradition and modesty compel us to be silent.

DEAR LEGENDA: I am so interested in the specialties you keep adding to your performances that I hate to miss any of them. Can't you tell me the exact date when they are to be introduced and what the extra features are to be?

ANXIOUS.

Answer: The management finds itself in a difficult position. Like many people, it is unable to tell what 1915 will do next.

Fashion Notes and Queries

Query: May low-heeled shoes be worn around Campus?

Answer: There is no real reason why individuals may not wear them if they so desire, but since the management has taken pains to have the brick walks laid out so that the space between bricks exactly fits the new Spanish heel, it might be considered unappreciative to overlook this thoughtfulness.

Query: What is the latest word from Paris regarding hats to be worn to classes?

Answer: Here is an excellent opportunity for a true realization of Dame Fashion. She is not fickle-minded, for she realized that the plain crowns and bands of the classroom hat of last season must have been trying to the instructor. This season the error is corrected by an upright curved feather at the peak of the bonnet. This gives a questioning appearance bound to be inspiring to the instructor. (See illustration below.*)

Query: Can you give me a suggestion for a wrap which I may wear both as an evening cloak and a rain-coat?

Answer: We have found that an Academic gown answers this purpose admirably, and we are sending you directions for making it. We would suggest that with this costume you wear the new shoe which answers both as a rubber and a dancing pump.

The well-known white sweater has been replaced by the sweater coat of angora or silk in green, blue, orange, violet, and so on, worn with a studied disregard for the color of the frock. The vogue dates from March 17.

Yellow skating caps are Dame Fashion's latest contribution. The style is set by the athletic chorus of the successful play now running, "Toward the Light."

GREEN ROOM GOSSIP

It is rumored that one of the main scenic effects of the play having been recently destroyed by fire, a new scene is being erected in its place that will more than equal the old in everything except the affections of the actors.

During the run of the present play several innovations have been made by the Management:

1. Contrary to former ruling, male relatives of the actors are now permitted to visit the theatre on Sunday.
2. Actors of four years standing may leave the performance on Sunday twice during the year, provided they partake of no food not supplied by the management.

This theatre has been inspected by the greatest authorities on model henhouses and is guaranteed against all natural calamities except fire, flood, earthquake, etc.

Walls of the theatre guaranteed to facilitate attendance at two lectures at once.

CHATS WITH THE ACTORS

The first time I went to call on this popular young actress, I found a sign on her door with the simple word "BUSY" in large letters. It is not customary, I have heard, to be influenced by such signs, so I knocked boldly and went in. She looked up with a guilty start from the pan of fudge she was cutting and I detected a slight coldness in her greeting. One in my profession soon learns to read expressions.

In a few minutes, however, she was all smiles. She offered me some candy with a grace peculiarly her own, and we talked gaily while she finished cutting the fudge into little squares.

"How do chorus girls spend their spare moments?" she replied to one of my questions. "Why, do you know, the first words that come to my mind are, 'if any.' Isn't that an interesting psychological reaction?" During my conversation with her I noticed that she used academic terms of four or even five syllables as though she really understood them. Doubtless she had been thrown with people who used such words carelessly in her presence.

She laughed and went on: "I wonder if you are really asking me for information, or whether you are going to make statistics out of my answers. I have been simply pursued by those rows of questions, ever since I made application to go on the Wellesley stage. They are generally headed, 'Please Fill Out and Return at Once,' and at first I really returned one or two,—wasn't that stupid and queer of me? But now I just let people come and ask me if I won't please fill out that slip; they even say, sometimes, that they'll just sit down and wait until I do it! The questions are positively the most embarrassing things. The other day they actually asked me if I wouldn't let them know my birthday so they could print it,—print it! Imagine! In our programme! How often I go to church, the reason why I went on the stage, and even the number of complimentary tickets I'm going to send out this June. I'm not allowed to have a single thought in private!"

She paused and then smiled. "Do you know, I believe I have been telling you how we girls do spend our spare moments, and it must be the right way, because every one says the collection of statistics is a matter of vital importance."

She waved her fountain pen daintily in the air, sprinkling drops of ink merrily over my dress. And by her naive pause I felt that I had been classed with those other collectors of statistics. It was time for me to go.

THE bare assertion of the manufacturer cannot make reputation for his product, no matter how persistently repeated, or widely advertised, and reputation, therefore, is necessarily the consensus of opinion of those who have repeatedly used the product and had the opportunity to compare it with similar products of other makers. When the consensus of opinion of many users is that a certain product is the best obtainable, it means that the manufacturer has "made good," and it is said that "they have a great reputation," but is it not a fact that the manufacturer only made a good product and that it was the product that made the reputation? Dill & Collins Co. have for years, patiently and persistently directed their brains, energy and money to the improvement of their product, and their name is now synonymous with the best in printing papers, both with and without a coated surface, simply because printers, publishers and advertisers have learned by actual experience that with them they obtain the most satisfactory results.

Dill & Collins Co.'s papers are sold at a fair manufacturing margin of profit, it can therefore safely be inferred that any competing product offered as "just as good" is either misrepresented or that the seller is a philanthropist who disposes of gold dollars at ninety cents.

CHATS WITH THE ACTORS

The room into which I was ushered to await my interview with Miss X, the popular young actress in "Toward the Light," presented a most unpretentious appearance. Simple refined taste struck the keynote of the place. But fine pictures relieved the severity of the tinted walls, and these I concluded represented the family of the young lady. One, in which an older woman is guiding a younger one, I took to be the mother and sister of the actress. Another showed a wistful-eyed young man, clad in armor, standing by a white horse. I wondered what his relationship with the charming Miss X might be, but the tag which was attached to the picture gave me no clue. It was enigmatic. "E. A. Davis—Rent 1914-1915 $2.00." I had barely time to catch the glitter from the bookcase, when the door opened and Miss X herself entered, reading what seemed to be a letter. She glanced up, nodded, and said, "bills," before she let herself sink into the pillows of her couch.

Her frank familiarity put me at my ease at once. While she finished her mail I had ample opportunity to note the girlish simplicity of her costume. The waist fell straight from the shoulders in a loose blouse effect. The broad sailor collar was finished in front by a red silken scarf, cleverly fastened with knot and pin. A tailored skirt, and loosely built shoes which showed the graceful lines of her feet, stamped her dress as distinctive.

As she perused her letter she would sometimes scowl deeply, then as suddenly break into charming smiles. Her utter unconsciousness of my presence gave proof of her complete lack of affectation.

Finally she looked up, chuckling, "crazy man," as she folded the letter and slipped it into its envelope. Then she gave me her full attention, toying with a volume on the table.

"What is it, my dear, missions or Relief Fund? I'm off to the Vill. to pay up a treat." A whistle sounded down the hall. "So long. There's a dime in my sweater pocket if that'll help any," and she was off, while I found my way out, deeply touched by a generosity so spontaneous and natural in so young a lady.

Dorothy's Getting Well.

Dorothy, who is just getting over the measles, has no more than said "My Goodness! Why don't they give me something good to eat?" when the wise Kewpies appear, one bearing a dish of delicious, sparkling Raspberry another bringing a spoon, and one carrying from sight the hateful medicine.

JELL-O

Dorothy's happy face expresses her approval.

If the importance of satisfying the fickle appetites of convalescents were as fully understood by all "big folks" as it is by doctors and nurses, getting well would not take so long as it frequently does.

"America's Most Famous Dessert" is good everywhere and the delightful pure fruit flavors of Jell-O appeal to all appetites. There are seven of the flavors: Raspberry, Strawberry, Lemon, Orange, Cherry, Peach, Chocolate. At all grocers' and general storekeepers', 10c. each.

The new Jell-O book is a real Kewpie book, with pictures of Kewpies by Rose O'Neill herself. If you desire one and will write and ask us for it we will send it to you free.
